Broadus College.

Broadus College is down and out so far as football is concerned for this season. An attempt to organize fell through owing to the dearth of candidates. Several practices were held but the project had to finally be abandoned.

Carlisle Indians.

That hustling young bunch of players that go forth under the name of the Carlisle Indians from Carlisle court did not play Saturday but their manager is arranging a schedule and they will be heard from ere long and will likely take care of themselves as they have done in the past.

Clarksburg Athletic Club.

The Clarksburg Athletic Club will soon have its quarters open on Second street. They are being comfortably fitted up and all the gymnastic paraphernalia has been received. A basketball team will be organized as soon as the club is open and the project of a league composed of surrounding towns will then be taken up in earnest and every effort made to organize same.
